

Bridging The Gap Internship

Connecting Environment, Economy, and Community

bridgingthegap.org

Bridging The Gap (BTG) works to make the Kansas City region sustainable by “connecting environment, economy and community,” and is the premier organization in the area providing environmental education and volunteer action through more than 1,500 volunteers annually.

- Program: Multiple programs
- Name of Internship: Data and Program Evaluation Intern
- Length of Internship: Spring or Summer 2022

Internship Description

This internship will support several of BTG’s programs by creating and evaluating systems for measuring impact through data collection, surveys, and evaluation. This data collection and analysis will help improve each program and be used to communicate the impact of BTG’s work.

This position will provide opportunities for building professional skills and experience in data collection and analysis, program evaluation, and communications. There will be a small monthly stipend to support phone and internet use. Work will be primarily remote with infrequent in-office requirements.

Primary Projects

- Assist with conducting litter index throughout KCMO and analyzing the results
- Create system for tracking traffic, volunteer hours, and material recovery at recycling centers
- Help Heartland Tree Alliance and KC WildLands evaluate data collection and reporting
- Work with Volunteer Program on measuring impact of volunteers
- Create content for social media, blog, and website

Skills/Experience Needed

- Currently enrolled undergraduate student
- Strong written and oral communication skills
- Basic computer skills with Excel, PowerPoint, Adobe Photoshop and Illustrator preferred
- Demonstrated ability to work independently
- Detail-oriented
- Knowledge/experience with sustainability/environmental issues not necessary

Time Commitment: Flexible Days/Week: 2-3 Hours/Week: 10

To apply, please send a cover letter, resume to volunteer@bridgingthegap.org and reference the name of the internship for which you are applying.